

Insurance Corporation – Key Facts

Insurance Corporation of the Channel Islands Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of Royal & Sun Alliance Insurance plc (RSA) and

- has an unlimited financial indemnity from its parent, RSA, which is currently rated A ('stable') by Standard and Poors. For an update on this credit rating please visit the RSA website.
- in determining capital requirement and financial strength, is regulated and assessed by the Guernsey Financial Services Commission on a standalone basis and, as such, comfortably meets solvency requirements
- provides a range of insurance products and captive management services for local and international clients including local governments, industry/commercial groups, UK national and substantial property investors
- around 85% of our people are professionally qualified or are studying for professional qualifications
- provides market leading claims service backed up by a Claims Promise, which is detailed on our website
- Provides all service through a team of 41 people based in the Channel Islands
- our claims, underwriting, risk management, accounting and administration teams all work together within the same business operation from our two sites in Guernsey and Jersey

Insurance Corporation has a real commitment to customer care and has built a reputation as the company that puts customers first and foremost.

The range of insurance underwriting and other services provided is broad and designed to meet the needs of a wide spectrum of customers, including the specialist needs of governments, investment groups and private individuals.

RSA is a leading general insurer, currently has core operations in 28 countries and one of the largest partner networks in the industry, supporting them in around 140 territories. For an update, please visit the RSA website.

Insurance Corporation underwrites UK-based property insurance business as a non-admitted insurer from the Channel Islands and is not required to be authorised by the FCA. It also falls outside of the scope of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme. We are regulated by the Guernsey Financial Services Commission in Guernsey, the Jersey Financial Services Commission in Jersey and the Insurance and Pensions Authority in the Isle of Man.

For more information see:

www.rsagroup.com
www.insurancecorporation.com